Asst
Mr 1.11.23.

There are at present 11 permanent Senior Asst Comrs. From the 22nd Sept 1923, the same number of these posts open to the Civil Service is 9. There thus are two, which can be absorbed by any of persons - Mr Venkatesa Iyengar (and Mr Saravana Rao who is senior to him) would have the right to act ~~in that post~~ ~~place, if~~ as Senior Asst Comrs if these 2 places existed, but since the Rules have not yet established it does not seem possible to make an arrangement except for that period prior to 22nd Sept 23.

Mr Venkatesiengar asks that in the case of C.S. & C.S. cases are separate promotions may be given as the rules direct. Whether this may be done is for orders

It has since been proposed that

B there may be 11 supernumeraries in the list of Mtr Cmrs of the Civil Service, corresponding no. of places with nom C.S. cadres being kept vacant. Thus against 53 places of Mtr Cmrs there will really be 64 men including supernumeraries for 53 men there are 9 places of Civil Mtr Cmrs: for 64 at least one more called, it seems to me, be allowed. If this is done, ~~there are Vacancies for 10~~ there will be 10 places of Sr Mtr Cmrs. At present against 9 places there are 2 vacant — due to appointment of Mr B. Srinivasiengar as Imprd Opn System & to the appointment of Mr B. Ramaswamayya as Chief Engr & the promotion of a Sr Mtr Cmr as Sec. in his place & the third due to the abolition proposed above & there would be 8 Mtr Cmrs Rs. 2000 each & Mr Venkatasiengar. These will hereafter be counted as A appts when arrived

The arrangement of allowing 11 supernumeraries in the list of Civilian Officers involves a departure from the constitution of the Civil and Non-Civil Service cadres as recently revised and it has had to be adopted only with the object of satisfying the sentiment of the officers who are already in the list and who do not like to be relegated to the Non-Civil Service list. The arrangement is altogether temporary and I do not see how an exceptional procedure necessitated by the difficulties incidental to the introduction of the new arrangement can be made the ground for creating another appointment on higher emoluments. What should be the number of places on higher emoluments available to Officers of the Civil Service and Non-Civil Service cadres has been fixed and I can see no justification for adding one more appointment to that number.

Interview Memo submitted to the Dewan

A vacancy of Senior Asst Commr which occurred in August last was not given to me because it was one of two places which were to be reserved to the Non-Civil Service Cadre created by the C.S. Reorganisation order. It was expected that a certain number of the Officers in the C.S. would be allocated to the new Cadre and so two Senior places were reserved for them.

So it seems that in the allocation all the officers in the Civil Service will continue in it and the extra number of about ten over the sanctioned strength created as supernumeraries counting against vacancies in the Non-C.S. I beg to suggest that the two Senior places also be taken back to the C.S. temporarily and two Senior Asst Commr places be made available to the added strength of the C.S. These two places may as in the case of the supernumeraries be counted against vacancies of two Senior places in the Non C. Service Cadre.

The total number of places on Rs 500 & 60 will be 11 as sanctioned in the Reorganisation. There can therefore be no financial objection to this course. As the Non-C.S. men will be junior to the junior most C.S. man the proposal is not unfair to the Non-C. Service.

The places may be made available to the Non-C.Service again as soon as the supernumeraries cease to exist in the C.Service.

NOTE–Contn. Sheet

Serial No.

If both the Senior places of the Non-C.S. cannot be made available to the C.S. at least one of them may be made available. This will give 10 places to the C.S. and one place for the Non-C.S. for the present. Considering the extra strength of the C.S. and the reduced strength of the Non-C.S. this would be more than fair to the Civil Service.

Comrs might have to be selected for vacancies in the non-Civil Service cadre in these departments. The most senior among these is Mr. R. Shama Rao. The question of his increment is under consideration separately. Non-civil service officers will not get promotion to the grade Rs 500-50-600 unless they have reached the maximum pay of Rs 450. Perhaps there is no chance of any Non-Civil Service Officer being promoted to the higher grade 500-50-600 in the near future.

These papers relate to the question of promoting temporarily two Assistant Commissioners (Civil Service) to the Senior Assistant Commissioner's grade against vacancies in the non-Civil Service cadre.

Prior to the formation of a non-Civil Service cadre of Gazetted appointments for certain departments, the cadre of Senior Assistant Commissioners consisted of eleven appointments. Under G.O. No.757-807/C.B.210-23-1 dated 22nd September 1924, the number of Senior Assistant Commissioners' posts was reduced from 11 to 9. Two higher appointments of the pay of Senior Assistant Commissioner, i.e., Rs.500-50-600 have been made available, one to the Revenue and another to the Police Department for promotion of non-Civil Service officers in those departments who have reached the maximum pay of Rs.450/-.

Mr. M. Venkatesiengar, Assistant Secretary to Government has submitted a representation that, as under the recent allocation of existing Assistant Commissioners, about 11 officers have been treated as supernumeraries in the Civil Service cadre counting against vacancies in the non-Civil Service cadre, and that as there are no non-Civil Service officers available for being promoted to the two Senior Officers' places, the two places on Rs.500-50-600 in the non-Civil Service cadre may be made temporarily available for promotion to Civil Service Assistant Commissioners till non-Civil Service officers become eligible for such promotion.

The Financial Secretary states that there is no financial objection to the grant of the above request, if taking both cadres, the number of posts of Senior Officers is not increased. Under Mr. Banerji's orders, a draft Government Order in accordance with the financial view has been prepared and it was considered in Council on the 19th instant when the following opinion was recorded:-

Pages + office Notes

"The draft Government Order as revised may be approved."

The names of Assistant Commissioners eligible for promotion to the grade of Senior Assistant Commissioners will be worked up and submitted for orders separately after verification of vacancies that existed or are existing.

The recommendation of the Council may be graciously approved.

C.B. 710-23-22

Dear sir,

May I invite your attention to a small matter concerning my promotion and request you to kindly move Government to pass favourable orders on it.

You are aware that Mr. C.S. Kuppuswamiengar's transfer to the Military Department created a vacancy among Senior Assistant Commissioners in which I should in the usual course have been appointed to act. In filling up vacancies among Senior Assistant Commissioners subsequently, Government have, however, left this and another place vacant presumably because the recent order re-constituting the Civil Service reserves two places for the non-Civil Service cadre to be formed hereafter.

CB F 30/11/23

I beg to submit that the application of this order to these vacancies causes great hardship to me as it deprives me of an acting allowance of Rs.100 a month. It would seem also that the order cannot fairly apply to this vacancy because the vacancy occurred before the order was passed. There is besides no non-Civil Service Cadre as yet for which this place should be reserved. Reserving the places, therefore, benefits no one while it causes me considerable loss.

In view of these facts, I request that this place may be filled up and the acting promotion that would have come to me in the usual course given to me. If it is considered likely that the place may be required for the non-Civil Service when it is constituted I may be given the promotion until such time as the vacancy is wanted ~~required~~ for the new cadre.

Yours sincerely
M. Venkatasa Iyengar
